

CASTLE STREET METHODIST CHURCH

"Where all are welcome – all the time"

www.castlestreet.org.uk

Sunday 10th August 2014

Welcome to worship with us – whether this is the first time you have entered our church, or if you are a long-standing member of our congregation. We seek to offer friendship and opportunities for learning more of God's will in this place and in this generation.

Refreshments are served in the hall following most Sunday services – please do stay for a chat over a cuppa and a biscuit.

Baptism of Martha Williams – next Sunday

Next Sunday morning, Martha Williams, the younger daughter of Matt and Anna, will be baptised in a service led by Anna's dad, Revd. Philip Morse. After the service, the celebrations will continue with a bring-and-share lunch in the church hall. Matt and Anna hope as many as possible will be able to share this day with them and help welcome Martha into the fellowship of the church. A few volunteers to help with the lunch would be appreciated – please let Matt and Anna know if you are able to do this.

Australian evening

Grahame Rosolen and his family will be visiting Cambridge at the beginning of September. Grahame became part of the church family at Castle Street when he came to Cambridge to do a PhD in the 1990s. He and Myra married in Cambridge before moving to Grahame's native Sydney, where they still live with their three daughters.

We are having a very informal bring-and-share supper in the church hall at 7.30pm on Friday 5th September, to catch up with the Rosolen family. Everyone is very welcome. It would be helpful to have an idea of numbers in advance: please could you let Sarah Creeke know if you are intending to come and if you are able to contribute some food. A sign-up-sheet will be on the noticeboard outside the church hall.

Coffee morning in aid of Breakthrough Breast Cancer

Margaret Hofton, who came to the flower festival on Friday, has asked us to publicise this coffee morning this Tuesday (12th August) between 10am and noon at 9 Maple Close, Bottisham. There's a £2 entrance charge.

United morning service on 24th August

A reminder that the morning service in two weeks' time on Sunday 24th August will take place at St. Augustine's at the earlier time of 9.30am.

Please contact Brian Carter if you have any items for inclusion on next Sunday's notice sheet, ideally by Friday evening.
