Sunday 3rd August 2014

Welcome to worship with us – whether this is the first time you have entered our church, or if you are a long-standing member of our congregation. We seek to offer friendship and opportunities for learning more of God's will in this place and in this generation.

Refreshments are served in the hall following most Sunday services – please do stay for a chat over a cuppa and a biscuit.

Celebrate! Summer flower festival

Next weekend is our centenary flower festival, entitled "Celebrate!". The church will be open on Friday and Saturday between 10am and 5pm and on Sunday afternoon until 4pm. Refreshments will be available throughout the time the church is open. We do hope you will come along, and bring your friends.

Wednesday coffee mornings

The popular Wednesday coffee mornings will continue during August at the usual time (10.30am until noon). The range of food available will be more modest than previously provided, but the warmth of welcome and the conversation will be as attractive as ever.

Should any kind person be willing and able to donate any appropriate food, then they should leave it in the fridge or bring it along on the day – and receive our grateful thanks.

Other Wednesday activities – summer break

Please note that both the "Time to be" prayer and fellowship meeting and the "Forever Active" exercise class, which usually take place either side of the Wednesday coffee morning, will take a break for August. Both will resume on Wednesday 3rd September.

Baptism of Martha Williams – two weeks' time

On Sunday 17th August, Martha Williams, the younger daughter of Matt and Anna, will be baptised in a service led by Anna's dad, Revd. Philip Morse. After the service, the celebrations will continue with a bring-and-share lunch in the church hall. We hope as many of you as possible will be able to share this day with us and help to welcome, Martha into the fellowship of the church. A few volunteers to help with the lunch would be appreciated – please let Matt and Anna know if you are able to do this.

Please contact Brian Carter if you have any items for inclusion on next Sunday's notice sheet, ideally by Friday evening.
