

This evening's service

This evening's service (at Castle Street), shown as "own arrangement" on the plan but to be led by John Boocock, will incorporate parts of the historical Pageant planned for our Church Anniversary centenary celebration on 25th October. For part of the worship members of the congregation will be invited to take on, very briefly, a choice of roles of key figures in our Castle Street church history. Come, participate and enjoy a fresh experience.

Next Sunday morning

Next Sunday morning's service will be led by the next of our centenary visiting preachers, and we welcome back Catrin and Neil Harland, along with their family. Catrin trained at Wesley House over a decade ago, and she and Neil were very much involved in life at Castle Street. Catrin is representing all the Wesley House trainee ministers who have been on attachment at Castle Street.

Next Sunday morning also sees the last service being held at Sturton Street Methodist Church, with the majority of the congregation planning to transfer to Castle Street from the start of September. Anyone who feels able to go to that service to represent Castle Street would be very welcome. The service begins at 10.30, and will be led by Revd. Alison Walker and Revd. Chris White, and will include Holy Communion. Please remember in your prayers the members of Sturton Street at this time of upheaval.

Wildfire rehearsals

With Castle Street's production of the Roger Jones musical Wildfire now rescheduled for the evenings of Saturday 15th and Sunday 16th November, rehearsals will soon resume after the summer break. They are to be held weekly, alternately on Wednesday and Tuesday evenings, in order to allow people to come along fortnightly if necessary. The first two will be on Wednesday 3rd and Tuesday 9th September. All singers – of any ability – will be very welcome. For more information, speak to Brian Carter.

Australian evening

Grahame Rosolen and his family will be visiting Cambridge at the beginning of September. Grahame became part of the church family at Castle Street when he came to Cambridge to do a PhD in the 1990s. He and Myra married in Cambridge before moving to Grahame's native Sydney, where they still live with their three daughters.

We are having a very informal bring-and-share supper in the church hall at 7.30pm on Friday 5th September, to catch up with the Rosolen family. Everyone is very welcome. It would be helpful to have an idea of numbers in advance: please could you let Sarah Creeke know if you are intending to come and if you are able to contribute some food. A sign-up-sheet is on the noticeboard outside the church hall.

Girton Operatic – *Ruddigore

Jo Blakeman will be conducting Girton Operatic this coming year and is looking for new chorus members. The society will be performing a staged production of Ruddigore on 26th to 28th February 2015. They rehearse on Thursdays from September to December then on Thursdays and Fridays after Christmas. It is not necessary to be able to read music. The first rehearsal will be on 11th September. If you are interested or have friends who are interested, please see Jo for further details.

Save the date – open meeting about Mission Statement

On Thursday 25th September at 7.30pm there will be an open meeting to discuss renewing our Mission Statement, to set ourselves aspirational and achievable aims. Please put this date in your diary and come along.
