

Audrey Seaton, RIP

We're sorry to announce the death of Audrey Seaton, in Addenbrooke's Hospital on Wednesday. Funeral details are not yet confirmed, but will be circulated when known. We praise God for Audrey's contribution to the life of Castle Street, and remember Ron and the rest of the Seaton family in our prayers.

Morning worship today

This morning we welcome Nicola, Chris and Simon into membership of the Methodist Church at Castle Street. The service will also include the celebration of Holy Communion. The date of this service was arranged less than a week ago, so sorry that advance notice could not be given.

Morning worship next Sunday

Due to illness, there is a change to the preacher next Sunday morning – but at this stage it is not confirmed who will be leading worship.

Reminder of forthcoming Castle Street events (see Castle View)

- World Church Weekend – a journey to India, Saturday 21st March at 7.30pm: Geoff and Joy Levine tell us about the work of Karunai Illam, the charity we supported during our centenary. If you can offer to cook some food, please speak to Heather Taplin or Anne Littlefair.
- An Impossible God, Wednesday 1st April at 7.30pm – tickets for this one-man play are now available from John Boocock. Please take some to sell to people at other churches (or none) if you have not done so already.

Elsewhere in the circuit this week (also see listings in Castle View)

- "Science Meets Faith", Monday 9th March, 7.15pm for 7.45pm at Wesley Methodist Church: "How Stephen Hawking's views are surprisingly close to theistic belief", presented by Professor Keith Ward, University of Oxford.
- "Big Issues", Thursday 12th March, 7.30pm at Histon Methodist Church: "Dementia and the associated issues", presented by Mike Francis and Julie Campbell.

Appeal from Romsey Mill – collect tokens from the Cambridge News

Romsey Mill is one of fifteen charities selected to receive a share of £10,000 from the Cambridge Building Society's "Cash for the Community" scheme, but how much of that it gets depends on how many tokens from the Cambridge News it collects. The money will be spent on resources for its Young Parents' programme.

The tokens will appear in the Cambridge News over the next four weeks, from Monday 9th March to Saturday 4th April. Please cut them out and collect them, and either take them directly to Romsey Mill, hand them in at any branch of the Cambridge Building Society, with "Romsey Mill" clearly marked on the back, or place them in the tub at the back of the church for us to collect as a church.

Fundraising Concert in aid of Romsey Mill

Whittlesford Community Gospel Choir is holding a fundraising concert for Romsey Mill, to help it reach more vulnerable and disadvantaged families and young people in Cambridge. It will take place on Saturday 21st March at 7.30pm at Wesley Methodist Church. Tickets cost £10 (£5 for under 18s), and are on sale at www.eventbrite.co.uk or from Romsey Mill.

The Cambridge Passion* – Friday 13th and Saturday 14th March

A reminder about this powerful and moving play, being staged at Emmanuel United Reformed Church, Trumpington Street by students from Westcott House. It starts at 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £7; they can be obtained from the ADC Theatre Box Office (tel.: 01223 300 085) or online at www.cambridgepassion.co.uk (where more information can also be found). All profits will go to charity. More details at www.cambridgepassion.co.uk.

Please contact Brian Carter if you have any items for inclusion on next Sunday's notice sheet, ideally by Friday evening.
