Jill McMillan, RIP

The funeral of Jill McMillan, who died peacefully on Friday 24th June, will take place at Castle Street on Friday 15th July at 1.30pm. It will be led by Revd. Robert Dolman and Revd. Karen Hilsden. We remember all of Jill's family in our prayers.

Rotas – volunteers needed

There are a number of rotas on the notice board in the foyer between the church and the hall. They are for volunteers for a number of important tasks connected with our Sunday morning worship and fellowship – for Bible reading during the service; putting flowers in the church; organising coffee after the service; welcoming people at the door; operating the sound and audio-visual systems.

At the moment there are quite a few blank spaces... If you would like to help at all, please sign up in an appropriate space. If you'd like to know more about any of the tasks, please ask a steward.

Gary Haberman lecture on the Resurrection of Jesus

Prof. Gary Habermas is probably the world's leading expert on the Resurrection of Jesus, and he's coming to Cambridge this week to give an evening lecture followed by a question and answer session. It's on Tuesday (5th July) starting at 7.30pm, and is being held in the Michaelhouse Café, Trinity Street. Admission is free, and it's open to all. The evening will be great for resourcing believers and will also be great for answering the questions of sceptics.

More details about the event can be found on Facebook (see www.facebook.com/events/651325495015258/), while the Wikipedia page https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gary_Habermas gives more information about the speaker.

Weekly notice sheet over the summer

As usual, it is hoped to produce the weekly notice sheet on most Sundays during July and August – although the Editor's holiday plans have not yet been finalised! Please be aware, however, that the deadline for submission of items may sometimes be a few days earlier than usual during this time.

Please contact Brian Carter if you have any items for inclusion on next Sunday's notice sheet, ideally by Friday evening.
